About Created

Created serves women who have been sexually exploited or trafficked. Our goal is to befriend women through our many outreaches and offer them hope and belonging. We do this by simply bringing a gift and extending friendship. When they are ready to move forward and change their lives we can offer them placement into one of our programs. Each care program offers safety, regular case management, recovery support, access to trauma therapy and other support services.

We want to see women empowered to dream again for their futures and purpose, and to move forward with stable income and stable housing.
